Compliance Training Memo and Post Test

Residents and fellows whose rotation will be at Children's Hospital of Wisconsin must complete Compliance Training which includes information on HIPAA Privacy and Security and pass a post-test with a score of 80%.

The course can be accessed by clicking on the link below. Please note that after clicking the link the user may receive an error message "An error has occurred" Please click on OK to begin the training.

Link to Compliance Training: http://cupublic.chw.org/media/HIPAA/index.html

After viewing the training module please take the post-test noted below and hand it in to the Program Coordinator of the MCWAH Program you are requesting a visiting rotation with.

1. The government has made healthcare fraud, waste and abuse a high priority. Which of the following is an example of fraud, waste and/or abuse. (Choose the best answer)
    a. Coding a procedure to a higher level of service than provided
    b. Ordering tests that are not medically indicated
    c. Consulting with specialists when medically indicated
    d. a and b

2. Which of the following would violate the Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act (EMTALA) :
    a. Referring a patient for a test at a facility where the ordering provider could benefit financially from the referral
    b. Submitting a claim for a service that was never performed
    c. Refusing to provide a medical screening exam to a patient in the emergency room
    d. Exceeding ACGME duty hour rules

3. True or False: Compliance concerns can be reported 24hrs/7 days per week at Children's Hospital?

4. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA): (Choose the best answer)
    a. Includes regulations for protecting patient privacy
    b. Only applies to patient information relating to psychiatric issues
    c. Includes regulations that describe security measures that must be taken to protect patient's protected health information
    d. a and c

5. Which of the following would be considered protected health information(PHI) under HIPAA: (Circle all that apply)
    a. A full face photo of a patient sitting up in bed eating a popsicle
    b. A patient's medical record number and a CPT code describing a procedure he had

c. A patient's email address and a description of their medical condition

d. A patient's date of admission to a hospital and their admitting diagnosis

6. A resident or fellow in training can use and access PHI without an authorization from the patient: (Circle all that apply)

   a. To access his/her own medical record

   b. To post well wishes to a patient on his/her Facebook page

   c. To take care of a patient he/she has been assigned to

   d. To check the condition of a friend

7. Examples of potential HIPAA violations include which of the following:

   a. Losing or having papers which contain PHI stolen from your vehicle

   b. Maintaining PHI on an unencrypted USB flash drive

   c. Handing a patient the After Visit Summary for another patient

   d. Disposing of papers containing PHI in a secure confidential shredding bin

8. When printing patient specific information to provide to a patient the _best_ practice before giving the printed material to a patient is:

   a. To check the name and date of birth of the patient on the first page of printed materials

   b. Let the nurse do it

   c. To check every page of printed materials you plan to give to a patient to ensure they are for the intended patient

   d. Quickly scan the printed document to ensure it is the one you intended to print

9. Which of the following protects the security of patient's protected health information: (Circle all that apply)

   a. Logging off your electronic medical record work station when you walk away from it

   b. Not storing PHI on an unencrypted device

   c. Documenting patient specific information using abbreviations that no one will never be able to figure out

   d. Taking paper containing PHI home and shredding it on your level 4 security shredder

10. True or False: You may take paper containing PHI off of Children's Hospital of Wisconsin's campus to work on it at home?