

MCW

PHARMACY SCHOOL

2024 Housing Guide

In this packet, you will find important information to assist you with obtaining housing accommodations while you study at the Medical College of Wisconsin School of Pharmacy.

Any further questions or concerns can be directed to:

Hope Goes
MCW School of Pharmacy
Program Coordinator

hgoes@mcw.edu

414.955.2881

Check out the MCW Student Housing Facebook Group - This is a group specifically for students joining MCW. On the page, you can look at current housing students are utilizing, connect with peers, and find a roommate.

Living in Wauwatosa

The Medical College of Wisconsin School of Pharmacy Campus is located in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. Wauwatosa is a large suburb located outside the city of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Many students enjoy living in Wauwatosa due to its close proximity to campus.

Bottom line: If you want to be close to campus and likely won't have a vehicle on campus, Wauwatosa living is the right fit for you.

Popular Apartment Complexes:

- Watertown Apartments
- Harmonee Square
- Mayfair Reserve
- Tosa Village Apartments

Things To Do + Places To See:

- Shopping at Mayfair Mall
- Ice Skating at Pettit National Ice Center
- See the Milwaukee Brewers play at American Family Field

Top Rated Restaurants:

- The Village
- Eddie Martini's

Living Downtown

Some students find downtown living more suitable if they seek more social activities outside of school. Students who come to campus alone and/or are new to the Milwaukee area enjoy downtown living for its peak social life. However, you will need regular and reliable transportation to get to campus (bus, Uber/Lyft, personal vehicle).

Bottom line: If you plan on bringing a vehicle to campus/don't mind regularly using public transportation to get to campus and seek an active and social lifestyle, downtown living is the right fit for you.

Popular Apartment Complexes:

- The North End
- Playbill Flats
- The Buckler
- Vim + Vigor

Things To Do + Places To See:

- See the Milwaukee Bucks at Fiserv Forum
- Nightlife on Water or Brady Street
- Swimming + at Bradford Beach

Top Rated Dining:

- Milwaukee Public Market
- Sweet Diner

Living in West Allis, New Berlin, or Brookfield

West Allis, New Berlin, and Brookfield are all large suburbs outside the city of Milwaukee. If you seek a more quiet lifestyle outside of school, these are the cities for you. These areas are family friendly and feature many dining and shopping options. Living in West Allis, New Berlin, or Brookfield will require you to regularly have reliable transportation (bus, Uber/Lyft, personal vehicle) to campus.

Bottom line: If you want to live in family friendly communities outside the chaos of downtown living and don't mind regularly driving to campus, living in West Allis, New Berlin, or Brookfield are the right fit for you.

Popular Apartment Complexes:

- Element 84 Apartments
- Apple Glen Apartments
- Brookfield Reserve
- The Highlands of New Berlin

Things To Do + Places To See:

- Shopping at Brookfield Square
- Mitchell Park Domes
- Milwaukee County Zoo

Top Rated Dining:

- Mr. B's
- Everest Cafe

Disclaimer: The information contained in this Guide is provided as a convenience to students as a courtesy and information service. MCW does not own, operate or endorse any residential property, and has not inspected or approved any of the listings. MCW makes no warranties or representations concerning the safety, habitability or quality of any of the housing options or areas referenced in the Guide. MCW makes no warranties or representations concerning the fair housing compliance and landlord/tenant practices of any owner or leasing agent of any property. Likewise, because this Guide is informational only, MCW cannot guarantee or assure that students will find rental property at any specific location or area.