Surgery for Sleep Apnea

B Tucker Woodson, MD
Professor and Chief
Division of Sleep Medicine and Sleep Surgery
Dept. of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences
Medical College of Wisconsin
Panelists

• Cecile Sulman, M.D., MPH
  – Professor and Chief, Division of Pediatric Otolaryngology, Medical College Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA

• Steve Sewall, D.D.S.
  – Professor and Chief, Division of Oral Surgery, Medical College Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA

• Ma’Lou Sabino, D.D.S.
  – Associate Professor, Division of Oral Surgery, Medical College Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA

• Robert H. Chun, MD
  – Associate Professor, Division of Pediatric Otolaryngology, Medical College Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA
Schedule

2:30 PM  Beyond Tonsillectomy and Adenoidectomy for Pediatric Obstructive Sleep Apnea  Cecille G. Sulman, MD

3:00    Pediatric Polysomnography (PSG) Guideline,
        Robert H. Chun, MD,

3:30    Mandibular Advancement Devices Indications and Complications for Obstructive Sleep Apnea
        Steven R. Sewall, DDS , B. Tucker Woodson, MD

4:00    Break

4:30    Reconstructive Palatal Techniques for Obstructive Sleep Apnea
        B. Tucker Woodson, MD

5:00    Controversies in Upper Airway Evaluation in OSA
        B. Tucker Woodson, MD

5:30    Upper Airway Stimulation – Hypoglossal Nerve Implant
        B. Tucker Woodson, MD
Objectives

- Format: 20 Minute Presentation and 10 minute open/panel discussion

- Questions are most important