

Medical College of Wisconsin presents

Quality Health Care for Trans and Gender Non-Conforming Patients

JOIN US!

Wednesday, May 1
12pm-1pm
Discovery Classroom

Come to hear our panelists tell their stories about the barriers trans and gender non-conforming patients may face while seeking health care, and ways to show compassion and provide quality care. This program is designed for our clinical faculty and students but is open to all.

Our Panel:

- Jessica Francis, MD, Associate Program Director, Assistant Professor, Department of OB/GYN
- Jenna Sarvaideo, DO, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine – Endocrinology
- Nathan Lamberton, PharmD, Assistant Professor, School of Pharmacy
- Kaci Sullivan, transmasculine parent and birth giver
- T.S. Banks, poet, playwright, and disability justice advocate

Please click here to RSVP and to submit questions in advance.

Use this link to view the presentation (live):

<https://mcw.hosted.panopto.com/Panopto/Pages/Viewer.aspx?id=32622151-de5e-48ea-9e25-aa22013002ad>