

The Cardiovascular Center

► Research   ► Community Outreach
► Education   ► Clinical Care

knowledge changing life

September 2019

Dear Valued Colleague:

The Cardiovascular Center at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee is launching a Human Induced Pluripotent Stem Cell (iPSC) Program. We appreciate your help in posting and forwarding this job announcement to any qualified candidates.

Many thanks,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ivor A. Benjamin".

Ivor Benjamin, MD, FAHA, FACC
Director, Cardiovascular Center
Professor of Medicine, Physiology, Pharmacology & Toxicology,
Surgery, Cell Biology, Neurobiology & Anatomy
Medical College of Wisconsin
2018-2019 President of the American Heart Association

Seeking Doctoral-Level Research Scientist II for Human iPSC Program

- Requisition ID: 25341
- Employment Type: Full-Time Non-Faculty (Staff) Researcher
- Location: Medical College of Wisconsin Cardiovascular Center, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
- Required Education: PhD in Biology, Molecular Biology, Genetics, Immunology, Biochemistry, Pharmacology, Physiology, Psychology, Genetic Epidemiology, or related field
- Minimum Required Experience: 3 years cell culture work experience in a stem cell research lab with human induced pluripotent stem cells (iPSC) generation, differentiation, and banking
- This position would manage and oversee organization of the program.
- Open until filled; available for immediate employment

For more information and to apply, click here, scan the QR code, or go to www.mcw.edu/departments/human-resources/careers, select “Staff Positions” and search Req ID 25341.

————— www.mcw.edu/Cardiovascular-Center —————