

Research Study for Black Men with Type 2 Diabetes and Prior Incarceration

ABOUT THIS RESEARCH

Who? Black men in Milwaukee, who experience multiple forms of discrimination and worse health outcomes

Why? To test an intervention to improve diabetes outcomes for Black men with a history of incarceration

What? A 6-month long research study to test a nursing intervention

WHAT THIS RESEARCH STUDY INCLUDES

Every participant in this study will receive diabetes education.

Some participants will receive support from a registered nurse.

Every participant will be paid for participating in the study.

➤ You May Be Eligible If

Age 18 or older
Type 2 diabetes
Black or African American
Incarcerated at some time during your life
HbA1c of 8% or higher

➤ IF YOU ARE INTERESTED

Please call us, we will ask you a few questions over the phone to see if you can join the study.
You can also scan this code for more information.

CONTACT US 414-955-7456

Dr. Laura Hawks is the doctor conducting this study.