

Opportunities in Graduate Medical Education

Medical College of Wisconsin Affiliated Hospitals (MCWAH) is a consortium created to facilitate the administration of Graduate Medical Education (GME) programs conducted jointly by the Medical College of Wisconsin in conjunction with nine health care institutions in the greater Milwaukee area. MCWAH currently employs 900+ housestaff in 95+ accredited residency and fellowship programs. We welcome diversity among our residents.

Major hospital affiliates:

- Froedtert Hospital, a 776-bed academic medical center and a leading referral resource for advanced medical care. Froedtert Hospital also operates the region's only adult Level I Trauma Center. The primary adult teaching affiliate of MCW, Froedtert Hospital is a major training facility for more than 1,000 medical, nursing, and health technical students annually.
- Children's Wisconsin-Milwaukee Campus, with 304 beds, is a private, independent, not-for-profit health care system dedicated solely to the health and well-being of children.
- Zablocki Veterans Affairs Medical Center, a 434-bed medical center staffed by faculty of The Medical College of Wisconsin, serves a 7,500-square-mile region that include 16 counties in southeastern and east central Wisconsin.

For more information, visit us online at www.mcw.edu/gme

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Milwaukee is a wonderful community that has the advantage of an urban, metropolitan city without the stress or cost. Advantages include affordable housing of all types, excellent public and parochial schools and minimal traffic. Neighborhoods are known for variety and character. The local business community is centralized and strong with manufacturing, technology and service industries at the core.

Milwaukee is located in the southeast corner of Wisconsin, nestled along a magnificent bluff overlooking one of Lake Michigan's most beautiful bays. Milwaukee is the largest city in Wisconsin and the 31st largest nationwide. Milwaukee has an estimated population of 556,111 (2024 census), and an area covering nearly 100 square miles. The four-county metropolitan area (Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Washington and Waukesha counties) has an estimated population of more than 1.6 million.

A City-Data.com study (2023) revealed a rich blend of ethnic groups, comprised of 36.2 percent Black, 31.4 percent White, 22.0 percent Hispanic, 5.6 percent Asian, 4.2 percent 2+ races, 0.4 percent American Indian, and 0.2 percent other.

