Program Details
MCW accepts applications through Visiting Student Application Service (VSAS) for full-time senior medical students attending an LCME-accredited medical school or COCA-accredited osteopathic medical school seeking to take an MCW 4-week elective for credit during the fall term only. All rotations are subject to availability.

Accepted students must be in good standing at their home school and have a demonstrated record of academic excellence, have an interest in one of the specialty areas listed below and be a member of a group that is recognized as URM by MCW: Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Black/African American, Native American, Hmong/Hmong American, Rural and 1st Generation College. Accepted students will receive a travel stipend up to $2,000 to cover application costs, housing, transportation and other living expenses.

To apply, please: complete the VSAS and the MCW Visiting URM Student Elective Program applications.
