Student Experience

At the Medical College of Wisconsin, we nurture curiosity and embrace the quest for knowledge above all else. Our innovative approach of academic medicine takes students on a journey where they'll learn the skills to adapt to the ever-changing landscape of medical discovery and patient care.

MCW faculty members are practicing professionals and researchers who share their knowledge with the next generation. It's how we approach health sciences education, and it's how we remain a leader in advancing the health of society.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

"MCW is a very COLLABORATIVE ENVIRONMENT, which is something you do not find at every institution. All of my first author publications involve the collaboration of at least one additional laboratory at MCW." -Francie Moehring

Degrees Awarded

The annual Commencement exercises in 2018 included the special achievement of the 15 graduates from MCW-Green Bay's inaugural medical school class. The graduation of these pioneering students marks the culmination of years of development and planning to open the first of MCW's two regional campuses with a three-year program structured to reduce student debt and allow faster entry into the physician workforce. MCW-Central Wisconsin will celebrate its first Commencement in June 2019 and the MSA Program will graduate its first students in December 2018.

Graduate Programs Offered

The MCW Graduate School's diverse programmatic offerings can be grouped into six main categories: Bioethics, Biomedical Engineering, Biomedical Sciences, Biostatistics, Clinical & Translational Science and Public Health.

- 11 PHD, 4 MASTERS, 7 CERTIFICATE,
- 3 JOINT PROGRAMS WITH MARQUETTE,

Milestone MCW Residency Match

In 2018, MCW celebrated a major milestone: the participation of the graduating medical students from the inaugural class at MCW-Green Bay. MCW medical students, their families, faculty and staff participated in the festivities in both Milwaukee and Green Bay to celebrate the moment when graduating medical students found out from the National Residency Matching Program where they "matched" for their respective residency training programs.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2018 MATCH

220 STUDENTS participated in the Match: 205 from MCW-Milwaukee and 15 from MCW-Green Bay

96% MATCH RATE of graduating MCW-MILWAUKEE medical students to residency programs

100% MATCH RATE of graduating MCW-GREEN BAY medical students to residency programs

GREATEST % OF SPECIALTIES represented were Internal Medicine, Pediatrics & Emergency Medicine from MCW-Milwaukee and Family Medicine & Internal Medicine from MCW-Green Bay

26% of MCW-MILWAUKEE students and 53% of MCW-GREEN BAY students to remain in WI for residency training

MCW RESIDENCY DISTRIBUTION

Some students have elected to not share their residency placements. All aggregate statistics are inclusive.
