

MPH COURSE OFFERINGS

CREDITS

The Master of Public Health Program is a total of 42 credits. Students take all required courses* and take 2 electives of their choice.

CORE COURSES

Principles of Public Health Data and Epidemiology, 3 credits
Public Health Theory and Practice, 3 credits
Public Health Analytics, 3 credits
Public Health Administration, 3 credits

CONCENTRATION COURSES

Community Health Assessment and Improvement, 3 credits
Community Health Program Evaluation, 3 credits
Community Health Program Planning, 3 credits
Public Health Policy, 3 credits
Racial and Ethnic Inequalities in Health, 3 credits
Leadership for the Public's Health, 3 credits
Field Placement Preparation, 1 credit
Field Placement, 2 credits
Capstone Project, 3 credits
Foundations of Public Health - Only required for dual degree students, 3 credits*

ELECTIVES

Health Communication, 3 credits
Infectious Diseases, 3 credits
Health Promotion and Disease Prevention, 3 credits
Public Health Law and Ethics, 3 credits
Introduction to Population Health Management, 3 credits
Foundations of Public Health, 3 credits

COURSE OFFERING SCHEDULE

FALL

Principles of Public Health Data and Epidemiology, 3 credits
Public Health Theory and Practice, 3 credits
Community Health Assessment and Improvement, 3 credits
Community Health Program Evaluation, 3 credits
Public Health Policy, 3 credits
Field Placement Preparation, 1 credit
Field Placement, 2 credits
Capstone Project, 3 credits
Health Communication, 3 credits

SPRING

Public Health Analytics, 3 credits
Public Health Administration, 3 credits
Community Health Program Planning, 3 credits
Racial and Ethnic Inequalities in Health, 3 credits
Field Placement Preparation, 1 credit
Field Placement, 2 credits
Capstone Project, 3 credits
Infectious Diseases, 3 credits
Health Promotion and Disease Prevention, 3 credits

SUMMER

Field Placement Preparation, 1 credit
Field Placement, 2 credits
Capstone Project, 3 credits
Leadership for the Public's Health, 3 credits
Public Health Law and Ethics, 3 credits
Introduction to Population Health Management, 3 credits
Foundations of Public Health - Only required for dual degree students, 3 credits