Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine

Date: Tuesday, September 18, 2018

Time: 12:00-1:00 P.M.

Location: M2050/M2070, MCW

Upon completion of this learning activity participants should be able to:

1. Discuss ethical issues that are relevant to the conduct of community engaged research.
2. Describe best practices for ensuring protection of research participants in community engaged research.
3. Apply the principles of community engagement to expand the notion of what is “ethical” beyond the individual research participant.

Who Should Attend: This program is designed for physicians, medical students, nurses, chaplains, social workers, psychologists, and other individuals who are interested in bioethics.
